Open First Manifest

Whatever it is you are currently working on. Go for it! Your idea. Your project. Your startup. Build it! Your dream. But build it

OPEN

Start dancing on your desk and celebrate

every time someone else creates something cool - by using your code, your artwork, your design, your sounds, your thoughts, your ideas.

Break down the barriers between tradition and innovation. Invite your suppliers, intensify your partnerships, involve your customers, and understand those who do not go for you yet. Find the best from all industries and combine it into a new benchmark, artwork, piece of art, work of art, or monument.

The more knowledge, the more ideas, the more experiences you give away, the more you will eventually get back.

Place the awards on your shelves, your accomplishments will make you smile. It's putting a dent in the universe that will make it all worth the effort. Of being open

Because this world is a hell of a lot more fun if everyone gets to enjoy it.

Don't go for walled gardens. Create open ecosystems that invite others to contribute. They will bring their domain knowledge. They might base their businesses on you. They will take it to levels you never have imagined. Let others steal your ideas. It's a signal you're doing something valuable.

So they don't have to make the same mistakes. Make money where you are irreplaceable.

And you will remain irreplaceable. Save the time and paper you need for NDAs.

Tell others where you messed up. Make kids and paper planes instead. Ditch your club nights for hackathons. But don't forget to party.

Discuss your ideas with your colleagues, your friends and your enemies. Quarrel with your boss and challenge your grandma, knowing elder people are wise. And sometimes the good ol' things can be upcycled to rock the world.

Mix up your communities because this world is motley and wild. Untie your company and unleash your fantasy.

Don't be afraid to lose power, control, or market share. As long as you remember to keep your doors and your minds open - and get ready to receive.

Build on diversity, openness, and collaboration. Go for real challenges and rock your open space, your jam, your meetup.
